

FTV NAILS SPA

Fashion TV will introduce luxurious nail treatments that will revolutionize the nail spa industry in the country. Here is the plethora of nail spa services we provide at F Nail Spa.

Gel Manicures and Extensions

The Gel Manicure and Extension treatment is rising in popularity. The extension application has become popular due to its polish-like appearance, it's a different feel from acrylic and minimum damage to the nail beds. These extensions have also become a hit with celebrities and influencers and have taken the nail spa industry by storm. Gel manicures are also popular because of their durability.

Soak-off gel Manicure

In this type of manicure, the nail lacquer is applied and hardened under the ultraviolet rays at every layer applied with a brush.

Paraffin wax Manicure

A method which involves dipping hands in wax for several layers, then peeling it off along with other products resulting in soft, moisturised hands.

Brazilian Manicure

The entire cuticle is detached and then nail lacquer is applied in this type of manicures.

French Manicure

Similar to a regular manicure, here the manicurist applies clear & white polish that will enhance the look of your natural nails.

Spa Manicure

This manicure involves a longer treatment of exfoliation and massages that is a relaxing treatment for the whole hand.
